Thoughts from Connie

Hello to Members and Guests,

I cannot believe we are already going into the month of May! Symbolizing a new beginning when things are in bloom and summer is right around the corner. A time where we go outside and enjoy picnics and spend time with family and friends. To me, this is the time of year where I like to slow down a bit and soak it all in.

Five Star Connection is experiencing a new beginning and a growth period of its own. I am not surprised that everyone has stepped forward, bonding together to keep our club going. Since being at our new location in Sterling Heights, the Lions Club attendance has been steady since we arrived. The one change that's very positive: is the participation of our line dance instructors. It's refreshing to have different people teach, showcasing their talents on the dance floor. It's also exciting to see all the happy faces, laughter, and enthusiasm at each dance. Positive energy flows and doesn't end until the last person leaves the building. Remember this is your club, the board is always open to suggestions!

See you on the dance floor and remember to bring your smiles, as it could make a difference in someone's day. Dancing is the best cure for a bad mood!

"Moms are like buttons. They hold it all together."

Happy Mother's Day.
